

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of direct electioneering by a
corporate media giant. This violates federal election law and
also violates Sinclair's
obligation by law to serve the public interest when they use the public
airwaves free of charge.

The FCC should
demand that Sinclair
either reverse its decision to make this broadcast or also broadcast a
counter-view such as
"Going Upriver" in prime time. If Sinclair refuses to do this, legal action should be brought against the company and the broadcasting
licenses of the local stations which follow this decision
should not be renewed.

Thank you.
